

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. He put His arms around you and whispered come to me. With tearful eyes I watched you and saw you pass away. Although I loved you dearly, I could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke my heart to prove to me, He only takes the BEST. - In loving memory of our cherished father, son, brother, husband, and friend. We continue to miss you every day!

William "Bill(y)" Hollis Warrington, Jr, 37, of Olympia, WA passed away Sunday, January 10, 2010 of pancreatic islet cell cancer, a rare neuroendocrine tumor.

Bill was born to Bill Sr and Thea Warrington on December 9, 1972 in Renton, WA. With his parents, and siblings Bill lived in Heidelberg, Germany and Fort Rucker, Alabama before returning to Washington state in 1986.

As a teenager, Bill was involved in youth group activities at North Thurston Life Center. After graduating from Olympia High School in 1991, Bill began a carpentry apprenticeship and became a licensed journeyman. During his career he worked for several great companies in Olympia, and was a foreman for Andy Johnson Company in his last position.

Bill was known for his warm smile and strong Christian faith. His love for the Lord won many to Christ. He was very energetic and always had a home improvement project or three underway at home. Bill also enjoyed gardening and especially prized his dahlias. Bill was a devoted father. He loved being a dad and spending time with his family.

Bill married Jill Wise on November 20, 1993, and had 3 beautiful children Shane, 13, Emily, 12, and Garret, 10. The marriage ended in divorce in 2004.

On August 23, 2008 Bill married his current wife, Bonnie Bray, and added a step-daughter, Chelsea Mitchell to his family.

Bill is survived by his loving wife, Bonnie; his three children, Shane, Emily, and Garret; his step-daughter, Chelsea; his parents, Bill Sr and Thea; his grandmother, May Stewart; his siblings Brian Rapacz, Keith (Diane) Rapacz, and Heidi (Steve) Koster; his former wife, Jill (Jeremy) Loveshe; and his nieces and nephews.

A celebration of his life will be held at his home church Faith Assembly of Lacey on Saturday, January 16, 2010 at 11am. Donations in memory of Bill may be made to the Caring for Carcinoid Foundation at www.caringforcarcinoid.org or to the Providence St. Peter Foundation Cancer Center at www.providence.org/swsa/facilities/St\_Peter\_Hospital